There's a comment section connected to every script, perfect for snarking. Keep this in mind if you are looking for something reasonably obscure. You need to be a registered user to enjoy the benefits of Rewards Program. The Daily ScriptThis site offers an exhaustive, neatly-ordered alphabetical list of films. Premium pricing is expected to add $3 (£1.50) to $4 (£2) to the cost of a DVD.Pali Research's Greenfield also says that once the Fox deal is done, other Hollywood studios will quickly follow suit.We're hopeful that any announcement in January will also involve territories outside the US. However, there are a number of online sites where you can download that amazing movie soundtrack you heard in that film the other day. Apple Insider says Fox is asking for downloads to be priced higher than $15 - something that Apple has refused to do until now.Richard Greenfield at market analysts Pali Research says the only thing that's holding up the Fox deal are Christmas DVD sales, which Fox obviously doesn't want to dampen.That could put the announcement on online release of movies like the Star Wars series, Borat and Minority Report as early as Tuesday January 15th - the date of Steve Jobs' keynote address at the Macworld Expo in San Francisco.Value-added DVDsThe Apple-Fox agreement has been spurred by increased piracy and a desire by studios to sell 'premium priced' DVDs which also include a digital copy of a film that can be watched on devices like iPods (opens in new tab). The Screenplay DatabaseThe Screenplay Database has a neat, alphabetized list of PDFs of great scripts listed in alphabetical order. Last.fm seems to have most music tracks in its database—the challenge comes with finding those tracks. However, most of the soundtracks that are the easiest to find are mainstream pop songs that have done movie scores. Don't be discouraged if you can't find it initially—or just use one of the other sites listed above. With more than 45,000 titles to choose from, SoundtrackCollector.com is for the serious musician and soundtrack enthusiast who is truly a fan of composers and the often brilliant and underappreciated work they do for every film. But the deal has only been possible because Apple has compromised over how much it will sell the movies for.Apple currently sells the entire Disney back catalogue, plus selected MGM, Paramount and Lionsgate films for $15 (£7) and $10 (£5). You can search alphabetically or by genre, and you can even look up your favorite TV transcripts. By Daniel Westlake A movie soundtrack is one of the most important parts of a film, yet few people know how or where to download them. All you need to do is identify the movie, the composer and check out one of these sites. You can buy tracks at iTunes or AmazonMP3. 61 per cent of those who took part in a BroadbandChoices.co.uk survey said they'd like to be able to download DVD quality movies, according to the BBC.We'd also expect any digital copy of a movie to be at least Apple TV (720p HD) quality if we're expected to pay a premium for it. That's simply unfair when you can buy full-length blockbuster movies like Pirates Of The Caribbean: At World's End on the US version.If Apple does make downloadable movies available here, it's likely to be welcome by culture-starved Brits. They're also printed in proper script format, perfect for amateur screenwriters learning script layout.Weekend Read AppWeekend Read app is a free app that allows you to download and read scripts straight from your mobile device, making it the perfect app to study scripts on the go. Scripts are instantly delivered in HTML or PDF formats. Some of the titles are listed by film, some are listed by composer and others are just listed by title. Users upload and share scripts, making this a truly collaborative site.BBC Writer's RoomThe UK is the birthplace of many of television and film's top programming. The admins boast that the site is constantly updated and that it has no dead links, ensuring that you don't waste your time. The US version of Apple's iTunes Store (pictured) has much wider selection of movies than the UK version does Apple (opens in new tab) is very close to linking a deal with Fox that will see the studios' entire movie output being made available on iTunes (opens in new tab). With a unique loyalty program, the Hungama rewards you for predefined action on our platform. With what may be the biggest database of movie soundtracks online, ArtistDirect.com provides most of these downloads for free (with a fee that must be paid for access to others). Script versions are specified, so you instantly know whether you're reading through a shooting script or a seventh draft.Screenplays for YouClean, simple and up-to-date is the name of the game with Screenplays for You. Drew's Script-o-RamaThe simple black and white interface belies the absolute depth and breadth of the scripts available on this site. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET
